Robert B. Zoellick

Former Deputy Secretary, Under Secretary and Counselor in the State Department; Ambassador and U.S. Trade Representative; Counselor to the Secretary of the Treasury; Deputy Chief of Staff at the White House; and President of the World Bank.

Mr. Zoellick currently serves as a Senior Fellow at the Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs at Harvard’s Kennedy School.

In his recently published book, "America in the World: A History of U.S. Diplomacy and Foreign Policy," Mr. Zoellick follows the sweep of American diplomatic history from Benjamin Franklin through the 20th century and identifies five traditions that have emerged from this nation’s encounters with the world.

Join us for this live-stream conversation between Robert B. Zoellick & Chancellor Emeritus Mark A. Nordenberg.

Sponsored by:
The Dick Thornburgh Forum for Law & Public Policy
Pitt Honors College

Co-sponsored by:
Institute of Politics
Center for International Legal Education
Department of History
Department of Political Science
Graduate School of Public and International Affairs
University Center for International Studies
World Affairs Council